Auditors Report.

To the Honorable H. W. Whitehead, Judge of said Court;

The undersigned, appointed Auditor, appointed by the Court of September 25, 1914, to distribute the balance remaining in the hands of David M. Guthrie, Administrator c.t.a. of James W. Guthrie, deceased, as per his first and final account, to and amongst those persons legally entitled thereto, respectfully reports,

That having given due and legal notice by advertisement in the Williamsport Sun a daily and weekly newspaper published in the County of Lycoming, for three consecutive weeks, of the time and place of meeting, and having also posted a similar notice in the Prothonotary's Office as directed by the Rule of Court, and having been duly sworn to perform the duties of his appointment with fidelity, he met the parties on the day and place fixed in said notice, to wit on the 11' day of November, A.D. 1914 at ten o'clock A.M. at his Office No. 4 West Third Street and by adjournment afterwards;

At these meetings he has to report as follows;

Appearances. J. Fred Katzmaier, Esq., appeared for David M. Guthrie, Administrator , c.t.a. of James W.Guthrie, deceased, also for Olive Moyer, Elisabeth A. Bateman and Roy F. Guthrie, residuary legatees and claimants.

Counsel for the administrator offered in evidence the records and files in the matter of the estate of James W. Guthrie, deceased, to No. 39 Sept. Term 1913 in the Orphan's Court of Lycoming County, and called attention of the Auditor particularly to the First and Final Account of David M. Guthrie, Administrator c.t.a. of James M. Guthrie deceased, showing a balance due of $654.64 for distribution.

He also offers in evidence the last will and testament of James. W. Guthrie. Deceased, probated and filed August 8, 1913 and to be found recorded in the Register's Office in and for Lycoming County in Will Book XV, page 501.

He offers in evidence also the mortgage dated October 17, 1912 recorded in Lycoming County No. 16, 1912, in Mortgage Book 77 page 81 to secure a bond of even date, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars given by Bert Frost, to James W. Guthrie.

Counsel for Olive Moyer, Elizabeth A. Bateman and Roy F. Guthrie claims the proceeds, debt and interest, from April 1, 1913 of the proceeds of the above mortgage in the hands of David M. Guthrie, administrator c.t.a. of James W. Guthrie, deceased.

It appeared that James W. Guthrie died on August 2, 1913, and that he left a will recorded in the Office of the Register's of Wills in and for the County of Lycoming Will Book Vol. XV, page 501 and which is as follows;

"Williamsport, Pa., April 30, 1913,"

"I hereby will all I have at my death to my son Roy and all of my insurance with the exception of One Hundred Dollars, that is to go to my daughter Olive Moyer. Roy, my son is to take my body and bury by the side of his mother Mary A. Guthrie and he is to bear all expenses for my burial."

"I seal this day of April 30, 1913."

"J.W. Guthrie."

James W. Guthrie left to survive him a wife, Mary A. Guthrie who resides at La Crosse, Wis., and a son Roy F. Guthrie resident at La Crosse, Wis., a daughter Olive, intermarried with Fred Moyer, residing at Renova, Pa., and a daughter Elizabeth A. intermarried with John Bateman, residing at Trout Run, Pa. And William J. Guthrie, son.

He had been twice married, the former wife, Mary A. Guthrie being dead. She was the mother of the children above-named to wit, Roy F., Olive and a daughter Elizabeth A. and William J. Guthrie, son.

Mary A. Guthrie, the living wife, by an election duly filed in the Register's Office on July 28, 1914, refused to take under the will of her deceased husband.

The First and Final Account of David M. Guthrie, Administrator shows in the hands of the Administrator the sum of $654.64 for distribution.

It also appears from the facts in the case, that the first wife of the decedent at the date of her death left certain real estate located in the village of Bodines, Lycoming County, Pa.

James W. Guthrie was entitled to the income and profits of this property as tenant by the courtesy, during his natural life. I appears however that James W. Guthrie and the heirs at law of Mary A. Guthrie reached an agreement in 1912 for the sale of the said property and the same in pursuance thereof was sold to Bert Frost for the sum of $2000.00. Five Hundred Dollars of said amount was paid in cash at the time of sale and this sum was paid to William J. Guthrie one of the residuary heirs and legatees of Mary J. Guthrie, the same being in full of his share due from the estate of Mary A. Guthrie, deceased.

At this time an agreement was entered into by James W. Guthrie, and Olive Moyer, Elizabeth A. Bateman and Roy F. Guthrie, the other and remaining heirs of Mary A. Guthrie. This agreement is attached to this report and is made a part thereof. By its provisions amongst other things it was contained that the said James W. Guthrie should act as trustee of the fund to it, the sum of $1500 remaining from the sale of the property of Mary A. Guthrie, deceased, with the right and privilege to invest the same as he might deem best and might use the income and such part of the principal as he might deem necessary for his proper support and maintenance during his lifetime, and that at his death such remaining part, the same having been segregated from his other estate to be paid to the said parties signing the said agreement, their heirs, assign, administrators or executors.

This fund of $1500.00 remained unimpaired and the accumulation of the interest thereon in the hands of the administrator with the principal amounts to $1575.00 and according to the ------- of the trust agreement aforesaid should be divided amongst the heirs of Mary A. Guthrie, to wit, Olive Moyer, Elizabeth A. Baseman, and Roy F. Guthrie, share and share alike.

But it appears that out of this sum $500.00 had already been paid to the said parties to the agreement thus reducing the said amount to $1075.00, which sum is in the hands of the administrator for distribution.

Distribution.

The Auditor therefore makes distribution under the power of his appointment as follows,

To J. Albert Losch, Register, appointment of Auditor and discharge of administrator, ----------	$ 2.50
To J. Albert Losch, Register, filing this report ----------	5.00
To. W. E. Ritter, Auditor, fee and advertising notice, ----------	43.50
To Roy F. Guthrie, share under the Will, ---------- {	402.42
To Roy F. Guthrie, share of trust fund, being 1/3 ---------- {	358.33
To Mary A. Guthrie, widow, 1/3 of personal estate ----------	201.21
To Olive Moyer, 1/3 trust fund of $1075 ----------	358.33

To Elizabeth A. Bateman, 1/3 trust fund of $1075 ---------- 358.33

Total distribution $ 654.63
1074.99 1729.62

All of which is respectfully submitted,
W.E. Ritter
Auditor

Lycoming Co. Court House Records

Proceedings before the Auditor on Nov. 11, 1914 at his Offices 4 West Third St.,

David M. Guthrie, administrator, c.t.a. of estate of James W. Guthrie, being produced and sworn, deposes and says;

I am the administrator c.t.a. of the last will and testament of James W. Guthrie, deceased, having been granted letters of administration, c.t.a. in said estate by the Register of Wills of Lycoming County, on August 8, 1913.

James W. Guthrie died in Lewis Township, in Lycoming County, Pa., on the second day of August 1913. The renunciation of William J. Guthrie eldest son of James W. Guthrie, deceased, was filed August 8, 1913. The Inventory filed in the estate contains a correct appraisement of all the personal property of the said decedent that came to my knowledge except the mortgage herein before referred to by counsel for claimant and offered in evidence. It includes six shares of the capital stock of Individual Cup and Vending Co., a corporation, par value $100.00. This stock is an unlisted stock and has never paid dividends to my knowledge.

I am familiar with that fact being interested in the company. My first and final account filed shows that I have charged myself with the amount of the inventory and $2.40, the interest upon frost note. I have taken credit with the costs of administration, funeral expenses and all claims of which I have any knowledge, including a credit of $60.00 the contract price of tombstones. This item is consistent with the amount of the estate, satisfactory to the residuary legatees, and purchased by me in order to compare favorably with a like marker already erected on the cemetery lot of decedent.

James W. Guthrie was twice married. His first wifes name was Mary A. Guthrie. She is now deceased. He left to survive him a second wife, Mary A. Guthrie who now resides in La Crosse, Wis. A daughter Olive Moyer intermarried with Fred Moyer, residing at Renova, Pa., a daughter, Elizabeth A. intermarried with John Bateman, residing at Trout Run Pa., R.F.D. and a son Roy F. Guthrie, residing at La Crosse Wis. and a son William J. Guthrie residing at Bodines Pa., R.F.D.

The first wife of James W. Guthrie deceased, Mary A. Guthrie was the owner of certain real estate situate in Lewis Township, Lycoming County Pa., of which she died seized, being a farm property, and leaving to survive her, her husband James W. Guthrie and the above named children of James W. Guthrie, deceased. He said Mary A. Guthrie died intestate. For a considerable length of time after the death of Mary A. Guthrie, James W. Guthrie occupied and collected the rent of the said real estate by virtue of his tenancy by the curtesy. In 1912 the said real estate was sold by said James W. Guthrie, and the heirs at law of Mary A, Guthrie deceased, by private sale for the sum of $2000.00 and three of the heirs odf. Mary J. Guthrie deceased entered into an agreement with the said James W. Guthrie, their father by the terms of which, the said James W. Guthrie, was to hold in trust for said heirs the amount unpaid by said frost of said consideration of $2000.00 to wit the sum of $1500.00 during his natural life. He to have the income thereof and the use of so much of the principal as might be necessary for his proper support and maintenance and also agreed that the said father should segregate the said sum from his other property, so that the same could be paid promptly at his death to said heirs at law entering into this agreement. Frost paid on account of said consideration the sum of $500.00 in cash, which was paid to William J. Guthrie one of the heirs for his interest in said property, the others to wit, Olive Moyer, Elizabeth A. Bateman and Roy F. Guthrie entering into the agreement above mentioned. Subject to the life estate of James W. Guthrie. They each had an undivided one-forth interest to said property.

Question. Mr. Guthrie are you familiar with the signature of James W. Guthrie, Olive Moyer, Elizabeth A. Bateman and Roy F. Guthrie?

Ans. Yes I know them all very well except Olive's.

Agreement dated  day of Sept 1912, between James W. Guthrie, Elizabeth A. Bateman, Olive Moyer and Roy F. Guthrie under seal signed by the said parties shown witness.

Question. Is this agreement in the handwriting as to the signature thereon of the parties to the agreement?

Answer. Yes Sir;

Q. Is this the agreement you referred to in your testimony above?

A.  Yes.

Q.  Were you familiar with the transaction evidenced by the agreement?

A.  Yes.

Agreement identified by witness offered by counsel Mr. Katzmaier.

James W. Guthrie at the time the sale of the real estate of Mary A. Guthrie deceased, was consummated, took from Bert Frost who purchased said property, in his own name, by virtue of said agreement with his said children a bond and mortgage of Bert Frost on the property sold to secure the payment of said sum of $1500.00 This is the mortgage offered in evidence by counsel for claimant. The sum of $500.00 had been paid by Frost to James W. Guthrie in his lifetime. And this sum had been paid by James W. Guthrie to the said parties to said agreement, having been invested in stock of the Individual Cup and Vending Co., and duly assigned to said parties to this agreement.

There therefore remains a balance of $1000.00 due on this mortgage at the time of the death of said James W. Guthrie together with interest uncollected from April 1 1913. $50.00 of this balance due together with interest was paid to me by Frost on account. I have since assigned said mortgage as administrator c.t.a. to Elizabeth Bateman, for the sum of the balance due thereof to wit, the sum of $500.00 and have therefore realized the whole amount due thereon, and have in my hands the sum of $1075.00 being the proceeds of said mortgage and the amount due thereon at the time of the death of James W. Guthrie, and interest from April 1, 1913 to the date of the assignment thereof as above to wit, Oct. 1, 1914, $75.00. This item is not contained in the inventory for the reason that I was familiar with the transaction, and knew of the trust agreement under which said Guthrie held said mortgage, and it is not accounted for by me in my account filed and therefore reported to the Auditor for distribution under the law.

To the best of my knowledge said decedent did not use any of the principal of said trust fund and the amount due as above $1075.00 is the property of said agreement. The inventory as above shows an item of stock appraised at $600.00. I did not make sale of this stock, because I am satisfied that it would not realize as much by public sale as the same is appraised at, which would be a loss to the estate and further I was requested by the residuary legatee Roy F. Guthrie, that he desired the same paid to him in kind if possible, being willing that the said stock should be charged and accounted for at the appraised value to wit, $100.00 per share par value, or $600.00 which in my judgment is more than the market value.

Fennimore Wisconsin Times Feb 1909

Golden Wedding Anniversary - Next Tuesday, Feb. 9, will be a memorable date in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Plondke, a highly respected old couple of Bagley, as that day marks the completion of fifty years of happy married life. The occasion will be duly observed by relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Plondke have led an active, industrious and useful life and are held in high esteem, so the following facts are of much interest:

Julius Plondke was born Feb. 2, 1833, in Pieschen, Provinz Posen, Germany. He received a very good education for those early days, and taught school up to his 21st year. Then he was drafted in the Army and served three years, receiving an honorable discharge. For a short time he took up his father's occupation of baker and confectioner, but then decided to go America. He did not go alone however, as he found Miss Amelia Adelheid Gutsche not as bashful as he was and made her his wife on Feb. 9, 1859, and they have lived together happily ever since.

Mrs. Plondke was born April 14,1840, at Gnesen, Provinz Posen, Germany. The newly married couple started for America Jan.15, 1860, and reached this country after a voyage of eight weeks, arriving at Dubuque Ia., March 20. They crossed the Mississippi River and made their home near Tafton in Grant Co., next at Wyalusing, Where they took up farming and followed it until 1895, when they took up their residence at Bagley. Fourteen children born to them, five who of whom died in infancy. The living are Mrs. Mary Guinn, Perry, Ia.; Otto Plondke, Bagley; Mrs. Celia Kendall, St. Louis Mo.; L. Julius Plondke, Bagley; H. Louis Plondke, South Dakota; Mrs. Minnie Braudt, Wyalusing; Mrs. Annie Trine, Bagley; Mrs. Augusta Chapman, Mt. Ida; Mrs. Clara Hazen, Bagley.

Obituary Bloomington Record August 22, 1901

At present we can but briefly mention the death of August Plondke, whose spirit took its flight August 16, 1901. Deceased was quite feeble for years but was taken with vertigo, and could not stand up. Monday he was taken with spasms, lasting an hour, after which the patient lapsed into a state of coma, from which he could never be aroused. This deep sleep lasted from Monday afternoon until Friday at 10 o'clock p.m. His last moments were as peaceful as a baby sleeping upon its mother's breast. Deceased was seventy-seven years old and was an early settler in Wisconsin, and highly respected by a host of friends. A large, concourse of people gathered at the Lutheran Church, to listen to a very able funeral discourse by Prof. Fritchel of Dubuque. His body rests in the Bagley Cemetery

Obituary Bloomington Record August 29, 1901

The late August Plondke was born in Schlesien Province, Germany, emigrated to America 42 years ago and married at Pittsburgh Pa. He next came to Dubuque, Ia., and finally settled permanently in this part of Wisconsin. Eight children were born to them 4 of whom survive him; F. J. and Chas. Plondke, Mrs. Wm. Thiessa and Mrs. J. G. Keeler. Deceased was 77 years of age and had been feeble a year or two. His last illness lasted 5 days. His children were all at his bedside when the spirit left the body. The funeral took place from the Lutheran Church and was one of the largest ever held here. The casket was draped with flowers and a sermon by Prof. Fritchel of Dubuque was heard with deepest interest. Mr. Plondke had survived his wife some 12 or 14 years.

Will of Julius Plondke

I Julius Plondke of the town Wyalusing, Grant, Wisconsin being of sound mind and memory and mindful of the uncertainties of human life do make publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in the following manner

1st after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses I give devise and bequeath to my wife, Amelia Plondke all of my personal property and real estate to have and hold the same as her sole property and for her use during her lifetime.

2nd and at her death should any of said property remain I wish disposed of in the following manner I give devise and bequeath to my three daughters Mary Guinn, Celia Kendall and Augusta Chapman the sum of three hundred dollars to each one of them and should not an amount large enough remain in said estate to pay each of said bequeath then each shall receive a prorate amount and if there should be more than enough to pay said bequeath then the remainder shall be equally divided between each of my daughters share alike that is to say Mary Guinn Celia Kendall Augusta Chapman Anna Trine Minnie Braudt & Clara Hazen and my son's Otto, Julius Jr. & Louis having heretofore received three equal shares they shall not share farther in my estate

I hereby appoint & nominate my wife Amelia Plondke the Executor of this my last will without bond and hereby authorize and empower her to settle all claims and demands against or in___ of my said estate in witness whereof I have hereonto set my hand and seal this 10th day of April 1912. Julius Plondke

The above instrument consisting of one sheet was the day of the date thereof signed published & declared by said testator to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have signed our names as witnesses in his presence and in the presence of each other.

Obituary Bloomington Record September 4, 1935

Mrs. Amelia (Emilie) Plondke, nee Gutsche, was born April 14, 1840, at Guesen, Germany. Her parents brought her to the lord in Holy Baptism soon after her birth and trained her in the nurture and admonition the Lord.

In 1859 she was married to Julius Plondke, who after 55 years of matrimonial life, preceded her in death twenty-two years ago. 14 children are born to them, 5 of whom died in infancy. After her marriage she first made her home with her husband at Pieschen, Germany, but after a few years they decided to emigrate. After a voyage of nine weeks, during which time their first born child died, they landed on the American shore, and came at once to Grant county. Bagley had not come into existence. They settled in Wyalusing township, where a brother of her husband had settled before. As they arrived here rather devoid of means, in a fairly wild country, she had to undergo with her husband the usual privations and hardships of pioneer life. But undaunted and willing to work, they forged ahead, and after seven years they acquired a farm and gradually gained a competence.

In 1895 she retired with her husband from the farm, and they took up their residence in Bagley. She continued to live here until after her husband's demise in 1913, until the diability of old age made it impossible for her to continue to live alone. She then made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Braudt, near Bagley, and since last year with another daughter, Mrs. Augusta Chapman, at Ridgeway. Both she and her husband were members of the Lutheran Church from its incipiency. She loved to come to the house of God, and was faithful in her attendance at services and holy communion until old age made it impossible for her to do so.

For many years her health has been failing, and gradually she became practically helpless. This continued until about ten days ago, when she suffered a stroke. It was clear then that the end was near, and on Aug. 28, she was summoned to the unseen world. She expired at the ripe old age of 95 years, 4 months and 14 days, leaving behind her to mourn her loss six daughters and three sons; Mrs. Mary Guinn, Perry Ia., Mrs. Celia Kendall, St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Augusta Chapman, Ridgeway, Wis., Mrs. Clara Hazen, Savannah, Ill., Louis Plondke, South Dakota, and Mrs. Anna Trine, Mrs. Minnie Braudt, Otto Plondke and Julius Plondke, Bagley. May she rest in peace and the divine light shine upon her.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. Fritschel and Rev. Lipoldt at the Lutheran Church at 2 p.m. Saturday. Interment was made in the Bagley Cemetery. Besides the children, those from out of town at the funeral were Mrs. Mary Guinn and son of Walter of Perry, Ia., Hugh Hazen of Savannah, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Williams of Moline, Ill., Emerson Chapman and family, Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Guthrie of East Dubuque, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Plondke of Savannah, Ill.
